

Becoming a Global Mission Church

Here's that workshop on outreach you've been looking for!

Do you have a passion for global mission? Does your congregation want to be recognized as a global mission congregation? Are you looking for new mission outreach ideas? Are you a pastor or mission chair interested in energizing your congregation through global mission? Have you had or would like to have an experience serving overseas? Do you want to learn more about Global ministries around the world so that you can tell the story and help your congregation get connected to God's global mission? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, then this workshop is for you!

Come and experience a day-long ministries and mission interpreters training event on Friday, November 14 at the site of the Regional Assembly at the Crown Plaza Hotel, 3000 S. Dirksen Parkway, Springfield, Illinois. The workshop goes from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm, and lunch is included in the cost of registration.

Plan to join the Global Ministries leaders, Jane Sullivan-Davis, Executive for Resource Development, and Jan Aerie, Executive for Mission Interpretation and Education.

Proposed Outline for the day -

- Global Ministries 101 - answers to basic questions about what Global Ministries is.
- Be a Global Mission Church - how a local congregation and the Region can work through that process with the resources available
- Lunch! (included in registration fee)
- How to prepare a mission presentation using the web resources, multi-media resources
- Help participants prepare an action plan to take to their congregations
- Closing worship service with communion and commissioning

Cost for this event includes registration AND lunch:

Early Registration - $25.00

Registration after Oct. 14 - $30.00

For more information about Global Ministries you may go to www.globalministries.org.

The Registration form may be found on the CCIW website at www.cciwdisciples.org

